

Welcome

Bienvenido

欢迎

ようこそ

Benvenuto

Bienvenue

Sponsors

European Research Council
Established by the European Commission

GLOBAL HISTORY NETWORK
ACADEMIC RESEARCH

Archivo General de Indias

"EMPIRES, STATES AND LAWS ACROSS EURASIA 13TH-20TH CENTURY"

EurasiaTrajeco-GECEM Conference

Organisers:
François Gipouloux (CNRS / FMSH)
&
Manuel Perez Garcia (Shanghai Jiao Tong University / P.I. GECEM Project)

October 5th & 6th, 2018
Seville, Spain

The project has received funding from the European Research Council (ERC) under the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme ERC - StG 679371

EurasiaTrajeco-GECEM Conference

Friday 5th of October at the Archivo de Indias

8:30 Participants registration

9:00 Welcome address : Manuel Ravina (Director of the Archivo de Indias), Bruno Martinez (Vice-Rector for Research and Technology Transfer Universidad Pablo de Olavide), Bartolome Yun-Casalilla (UPO) & Manuel Perez-Garcia (SJTU / GECEM)

9:20 Presentation of the research programme: François Gipouloux (CNRS / FMSH)

9:30 Keynote address
Patrick O'Brien (LSE) "The Great Divergence, the Penalties of an Early Start and the Defects of an Imperial State. Qing China, 1683-1839"

10:15 Session 1 Continental and Maritime Empires: Connections, Interactions, Conflicts

Chair: Leonard Blusse (Leiden University)

Paper 1: Murat Çizakça (KTO Karatay University) "Waqf: A Universal Institution"

Paper 2: Gagan Sood (LSE) "Governance in the Ottoman and Mughal empires over the seventeenth century"

Comment: Aleksandra Kobiljski (CNRS)

Discussion

12:00 Short visit at the Archivo de Indias

13:00 Lunch at the restaurant 'Las Lapas' offered by
GECEM

14:00 Session 2 Law, Formal and Informal Institutions

Chair: Bartolome Yun Casalilla (UPO)

Paper 3: Ron Harris (Tel Aviv University) "The Organization of India to Rome Trade: Loans and Agents in the Muziris

Papyrus"

Paper 4: Giovanni Ceccarelli (University of Parma) "From informal to formal: insurance market and governance in Renaissance Florence"

Paper 5: François Gipouloux (CNRS / FMSH) "Partnerships and capital pooling in late imperial China : preliminary reflections on merits and drawbacks of Chinese economic institutions"

Comment: Leonard Blusse (Leiden University)

Discussion

15:15 Coffee Break at the restaurant 'Las Lapas' offered
by GECEM

15:30 Session 2 (Continued)

Paper 6: Sui-Wai Cheung, David Faure, He Xi (Chinese University of Hong Kong) "The Emperor's Favour and State Currency during the Ming Dynasty"

Paper 7: Ioanna Pepelassis (Athens University of Economics and Business) "A Comparative Analysis of Joint Stock Company Births in the Mediterranean. Evidence from Greece and Cyprus (1923-1957)"

Paper 8: Wang Zhenzhong (Fudan University) "Huizhou Merchants and the Production and Sales of Ningzhou Black Tea in the Late 19th Century"

Comment: Frédéric Obringer (CNRS)

Discussion

21:00 Welcome Dinner for participants offered by CNRS
at the restaurant 'El 3 de Oro'

Saturday 6th of October at the Pablo de Olavide University
Sede - Centro

9:00 Session 3 Consumption Patterns and Circulation of Commodities

Chair: Frederic Obringer (CNRS)

Paper 9: Manuel Perez Garcia (Shanghai Jiao Tong University / P.I. GECEM Project) "Quantifying Consumption: Global Circulation of Chinese Silks from Macao-Canton to Marseille-Seville (1730-1789)"

Paper 10: Billy So & Sufumi So (Hong Kong University of Science and Technology) "Corporate Law and Incorporation in the Book Industry in the Late 19th and Early 20th Centuries: Macmillan and its East Asian Counterparts"

Discussion

10:45 Coffee Break at the UPO Sede - Centro offered by
GECEM

11:00 Session 3 (Continued)

Paper 11: Mihoko Oka (University of Tokyo) "The Forgotten Event 'the Affair of Paulo dos Santos': the process for expulsion of Portuguese from Japan in 1630s"

Paper 12: Pierre-Emmanuel Bachelet (IAO Lyon) "Japanese Networks in Vietnam, 16th-17th Century"

Comment: Bartolome Yun Casalilla (UPO)

Discussion

13:00 Lunch at the UPO Sede - Centro offered by GECEM

14:00 Session 4 Clans and Family Trade Networks

Chair: David Faure (CUHK)

Paper 13: Luca Mola (EUI) "The Role of Venice as a Global Hub of the Silk Trade in the Early Modern Period (XIVth-XVIIth Centuries)"

Paper 14: Joseph McDermott (University of Cambridge) "The Wus of Xi'an: Huizhou lineage reforms and a Late Ming Trading Syndicate"

Comment: Leonard Blusse (Leiden University)

Discussion

15:00 Manuel Perez Garcia and François Gipouloux:
Concluding remarks and future perspectives

16:00 End of the conference and closing cocktail by the restaurant 'Las Lapas' offered by GECEM